New Economic Controls Are Effective Today Through out Dominion

Ottawa, Nov. 1 (CP). — Many phases of business and everyday life in Canada are affected by a series of far-reaching orders and changes, most of them concerning the Dominion's war economy, which come into effect this week.

Most of these changes were dated to go into operation today but generally speaking they will not become effective until tomorrow, the first business day of the week.

Here are the major orders and changes:

1. Canadian distilleries cease making potable spirits and concentrate on alcohol production for war purposes, from today.

2. Canadian breweries, on and after today, may not use more malt for producing beer in any quarter than the amount used in the corresponding quarter of the preceding year.

3. Business of manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and ten types of services is frozen to present status, preventing extension into other lines, effective tomorrow.

4. Period of the 1941-42 bacon agreement with the United Kingdom Food Ministry elapses this weekend with Canada requiring more time to fill the 600,000,000-pound undertaking.

5. Newsprint quotas restricting production go into effect, starting with November output.

6. Butter prices advance three-quarters of a cent, starting tomorrow.

7. Third and final week of third Victory Loan campaign gets under way.

8. Dr. J. S. Thomson becomes general manager of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Dr. Augustin Frigon remains assistant general manager, and Gladstone Murray assumes new post of director-general of broadcasting, from tomorrow.

9. Salvage campaign starts this week in forty southern Ontario rural areas.

10. Establishment of maximum wholesale and retail prices for carcasses, sides and cuts of lamb and for all classes and grades of dressed poultry throughout Canada announced by Prices Board.

The month opens with further restrictions forecast in the use of alcoholic beverages.
