

FINANCIAL POST

The Money Made in Canada

Here is revealed the real problem of reconversion: to increase other earnings enough to replace the $1,068 millions paid by the Government to servicemen. On the spending side of the picture, reconversion calls for private individuals to boost their share of the "Gross National Expenditure." Where private spending used to be 82% of the total, it has dropped to 55% in wartime.

The Money Spent in Canada

149
 WAR EUROPEAN 1939
 CANADA
 POST
 WAR ECONOMICS