Confirms Reports — Cruisers
Enter Danish Port

London, April 9 (Tuesday). — (CP) — The Exchange Telegraph news agency said to-day that German troops had crossed the Schleswig frontier into Denmark and the Danish garrison at Sonderburg is retreating north.

Three German cruisers have entered Middelfahrt harbour, the agency said. Soldiers were reported to have landed and occupied a nearby street in the port city.

COPENHAGEN FALLS

New York, April 9 (Tuesday). — (AP) — The New York Times early to-day received from its Copenhagen correspondent advices that the Germans had occupied that city.

(At 12.15 a.m., E.S.T., the Associated Press had been unable to get in touch with its Copenhagen bureau since 9.47 p.m., last night.)

The Times correspondent, Svend Carstensen, also reported that three cruisers had landed troops at Middelfart, Denmark, immediately occupying the adjoining streets.

He also reported "German troops crossed the Danish frontier."

His messages indicated that he had filed his story just ahead of a suddenly imposed censorship.

Meanwhile, the Copenhagen station, in a service message to Mackay radio here, said the station was closing down, adding "Occupied by German troops."

NEWS CONFIRMED

London, April 9. — (CP) — A special announcement of the German radio intercepted to-day by Reuters news agency, said German troops had invaded Denmark and Norway.
