

HAMILTON MAN IN AFRICA—"All modern conveniences" doesn't mean much when one lives in a tent in North Africa where members of the Royal Canadian Air Force have played an important role in driving out the Axis. Against the background of the Tunisian terrain, Flying Officer P. R. Brook, 37 Kenmore road, Westdale, Hamilton, Ont., finishes washing his dinner dishes outside his tent home. He is the pilot of a night fighter.

—R.C.A.F. Photo.

149
 WAR EUROPEAN 1939
 NORTH AFRICA

3/10/43