

Latest Moves in Balkans

Black arrows show Nazi thrusts into Greece and Yugoslavia; white arrows Yugoslav and Greek counter-attacks. (1) Where British are reported to have established defense line. Nazi planes dropped magnetic mines at Piraeus, port of Athens. (2) Nazi drive to Salonika traps Greek forces in Struma fortifications, while Germans advancing across Central Yugoslavia (3) were reported within fifteen miles of the Albanian border. Yugoslav forces, after crossing the Drin River, are sweeping southward (4). Demilitarized Belgrade (5) was enormously damaged, with thousands of civilians killed, in savage Nazi bombing and machine-gun raids.